THE PLACE – OSIMO AND MARCHE

Nearby you can experience unique experiences and for every taste.

A few minutes immerse yourself in the charm of a typical Roman city to see the secret and underground Osimo that winds through caves dug into the sandstone.

At 25 minutes stands Recanati, famous for having given birth to the illustrious poet Giacomo Leopardi and the famous tenor Beniamino Gigli and Loreto guards one of the most important treasures of Christianity the Holy House of Mary of Nazareth

Less than 30 minutes you get to some unique destinations:

Ancona, elegant city with a refined and bewitching charm where you can see the sun rise and set over the sea. To enjoy an enchanting overall view of the Doric city, just go up towards the hill Guasco, where stands the splendid Cathedral of San Ciriaco and let yourself be carried away by the enchanting atmosphere that you can breathe.

Set in the green of the Conero Park and overlooking the beautiful beaches of the Riviera, stands Sirolo, an ancient medieval village. Sirolo is the blue of the sea, of the Blue Flags waving on its beaches, of the clear sky on sunny days.

The Conero Park is a park of many facets, a peak on the sea and with a hilly area that is wedged inland, there are points from which you can enjoy breathtaking views that span the entire Riviera del Conero, but also visit historical sites of particular charm.

The Park represents an excellence to the entire Adriatic coast, this protected natural area is in fact around the only coastal promontory up to the Gargano.

Jesi also known as the city of music and Verdicchio, the birthplace of Federico II and Giovan Battista Pergolesi.
